

Senator Witek is offering to us. Let me ask her a couple of questions and see if she has thought of these things. Senator Witek, your amendment is based on staying 20 feet, at least 20 feet away from the entrance to the place of residence of a registered voter. Is that correct?

SENATOR COORDSEN: Senator Witek, would you respond, please.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Can't hear her.

SENATOR WITEK: That's correct, Senator.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: How do you know, Senator Witek, at which residence a registered voter lives?

SENATOR WITEK: You wouldn't know.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So then how can you comply with this law?

SENATOR WITEK: I guess it would prohibit people from going to any residence on this issue.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And do you think that the constitution would restrict a citizens movement on public streets in that manner?

SENATOR WITEK: Well, I would hope that we could at least adopt this and see how it would hold up.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Do you think a person has the right under the constitution to freely traverse the public streets and sidewalks?

SENATOR WITEK: Well, is the public sidewalk in front of a school, is that a public sidewalk?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I am just dealing...

SENATOR WITEK: Because (interruption)...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: We are dealing...we are dealing with your amendment. You are talking not about a polling place, you are talking about residences, if I am correct.

SENATOR WITEK: Well, they are the polling place if we do mail
